Table of Contents

In advanced biology, Maura Fennell reports her findings to Kathy Rosengrant.

At the annual Parents Club bazaar, Rosemary Hoegen dishes out the ever-popular potato pancakes.

Like a jigsaw puzzle, Bishop Hoban High School is a complex combination of individual pieces. Each part of Bishop Hoban, the people, the events, the learning process, smoothly interlocks with one another as do the pieces of a puzzle.

River City's proud citizens applaud their newly-formed town band.

As the pregame show concludes Ann Zwiebel and Cheryl Keithline march off the field.

After forty-five minutes of lunch and relaxation Amy Summerfield, Cathy Cosgrove and Dawn Dotter move on to Period 7.

Individuals needed to complete puzzle

1982 grads rejoice as the final day arrives.

Low brass members Pat Wills and Ed Jasulevicz add plenty of volume to Hoban's award-winning band.

"We never guess, we look it up!" says Joe Janov as he hands Maureen Gushanes a dictionary.

Bonnie Scotch enjoys her half-time ride as the homecoming court members circle the field.

Father Burns is joined by his fellow priests in celebrating the school's opening Mass.

If any single piece is missing, the picture is incomplete. When every section falls neatly into place, a colorful picture results.

Blood Drive volunteers Joe Long and Mike Olsakowski wait to escort the donors from the tables.

Outstanding senior football player Ken Osiecki thanks the students for their support.

Before the pep rally begins Bill Zarola, Kim Evans and Mark Mutter remind the classes about the spirit stick.

Before the dancing begins, underclassmen build up their energy level.

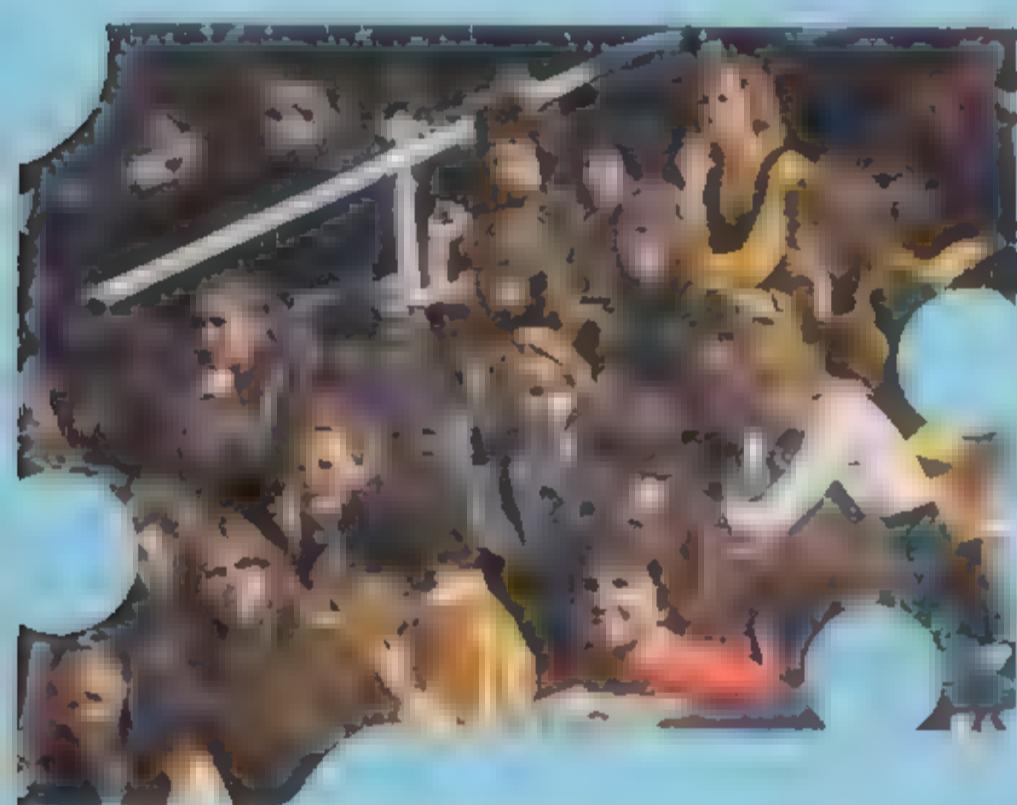

Philip Altavilla, Bob Simon and Bob Timchak assist at the Thanksgiving Liturgy.

Displaying true endurance, Greg Quinn nears the end of the course

Freshman students partake of the Eucharist as they share in their first school Liturgy at Hoban.

A sunny afternoon proves perfect football weather for the Argent fans

Pieces fit
together
smoothly

Argent softball players Theresa Ziemba, Laura Nork, Mary Liz Austin and Liza Delgado wait for the team to take the field.

Jerlann Katany admires her treasured class ring.

With their high school years soon to be memories, George Paltko, Rich Lloyd and Mike Merges begin to reminisce.

Erin Yankowski does her usual superb job of leading the band during a halftime show.

Father Zavacki offers some final advice to Gary Mrozinski, Ann Simonson and John McCarthy.

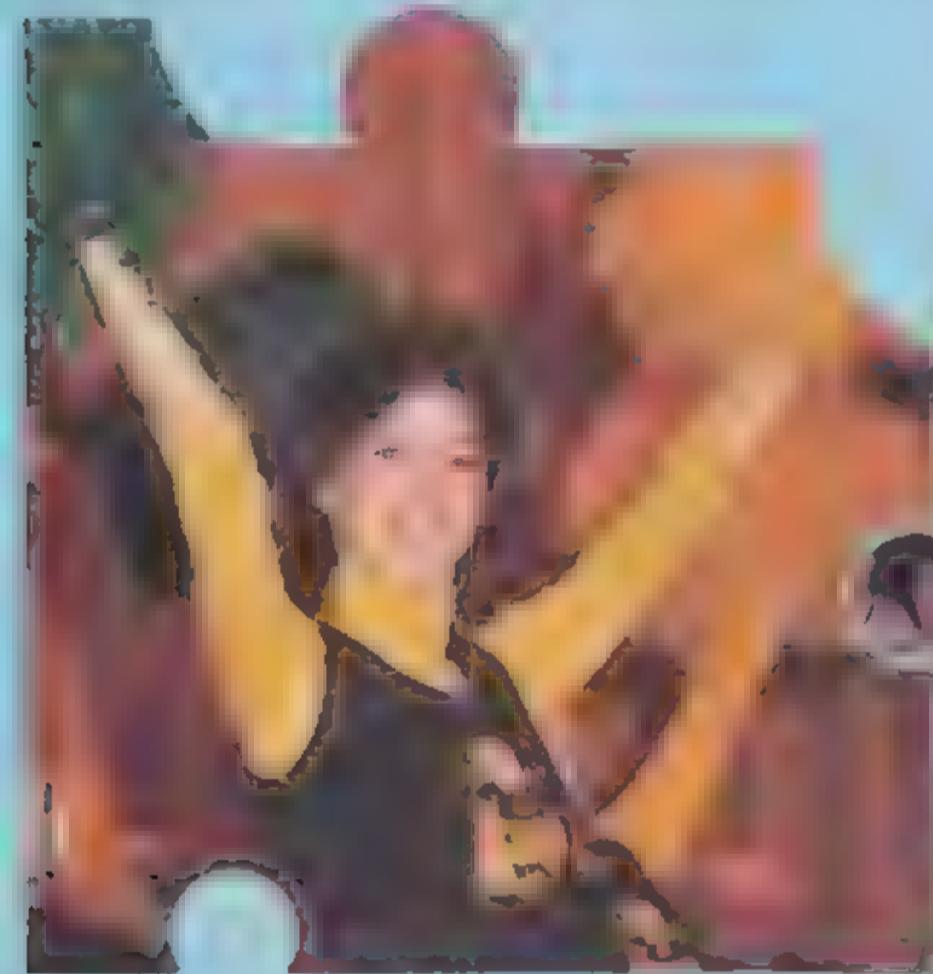

As with all puzzles, a great amount of work and unending patience are needed to finish the picture. This effort, of course, increases the value of the puzzle.

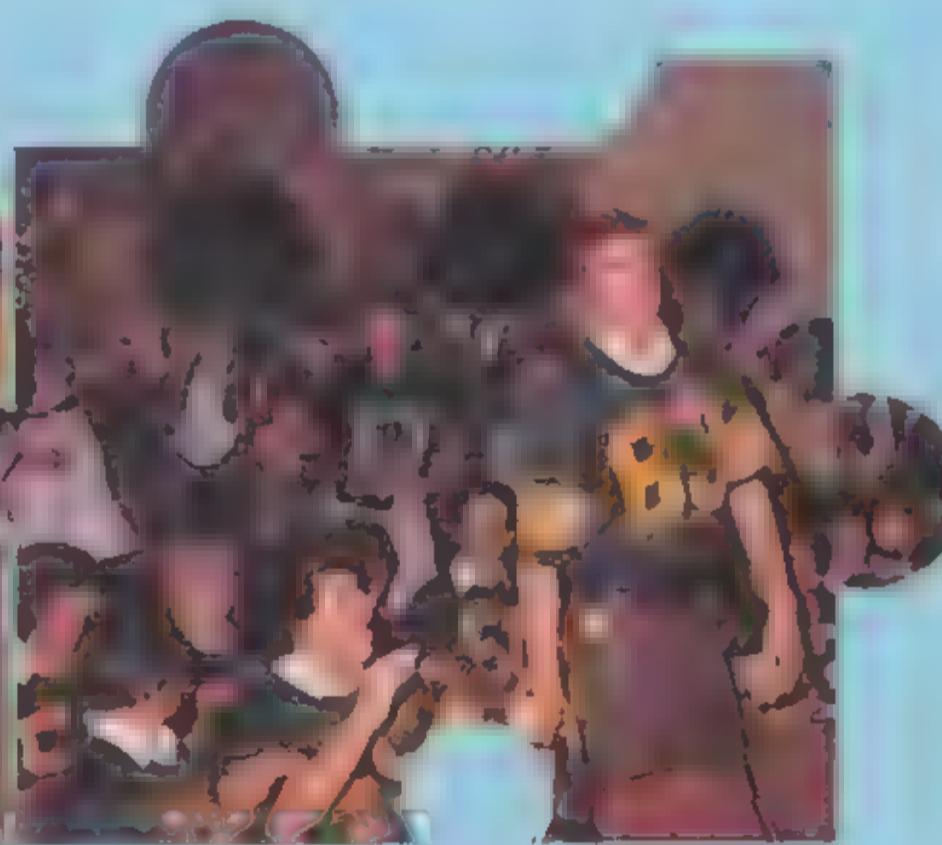

Cross Country team members Jackie Duclos, Claire Koval, and Dorothy Siemon try to keep warm as cold October winds sweep across Kirby Park.

A spirited Denise Dorkin leads the student body in cheers.

Vo-Tech students master complex skills

Working on a project, Mike Ulichney learns the essentials of working with electricity

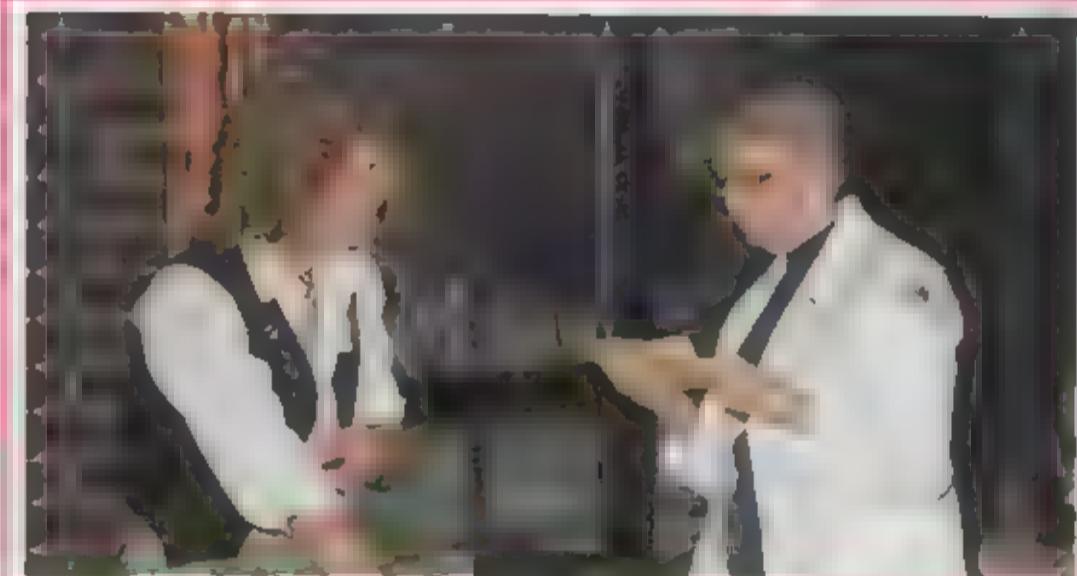

Hoban's Vo-Tech students concentrate their talents on learning and mastering the various skills needed to handle the many jobs which today demand special training. As the need grows and modern society becomes more technological with each passing day, the importance of Vo-Tech education becomes apparent. Some 34 Hoban students in grades ten through twelve spend part of each day at the Wilkes-Barre Area Vocational-Technical School where instructors share their knowledge and expertise with the students.

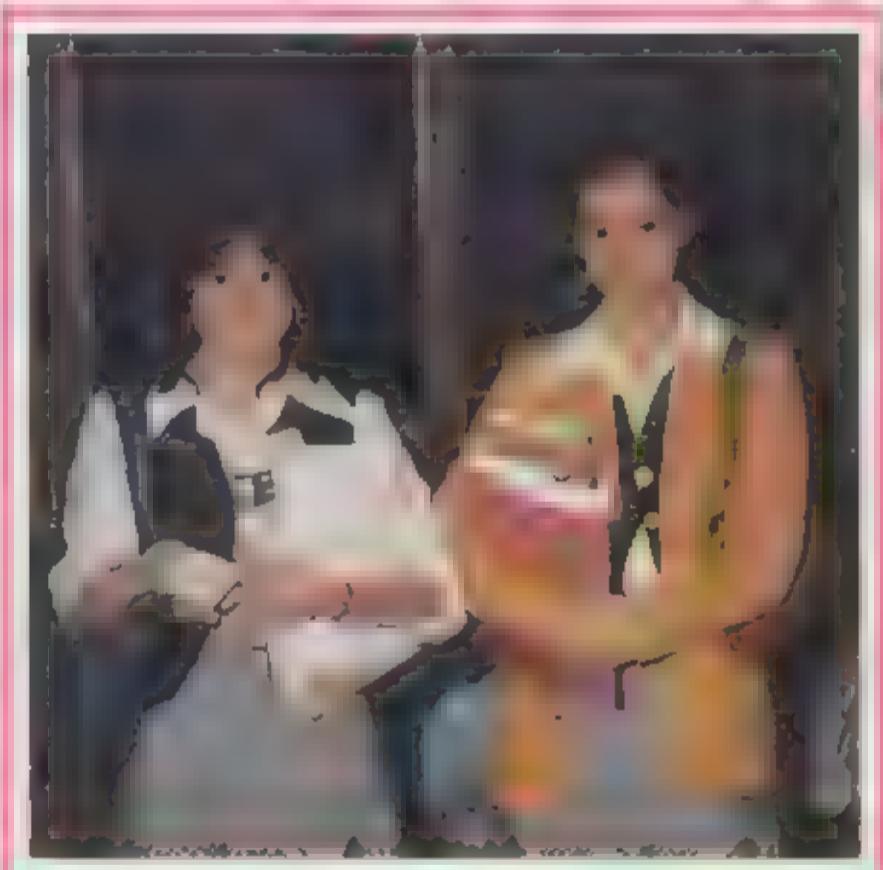

Training as a health assistant, Jean Washinski combines practical experience with textbook knowledge.

Senior Arlene Pambianco gains experience in apparel production

Seniors show true community spirit

Musicians Al Rodriguez, Joe Ruth and Clare McManaman bring the gift of music to the C.L.C. Liturgy.

On the football field, Lisa Laibinis and Fred Feldman add their talents to the quality sound of the marching Argents.

Hoban's cavalry (Liza Delgado, Bonnie Scutch, and Noreen Mangan) prepare to ride into battle.

Fearing the domino effect, the girls work to keep themselves balanced.

Breaking the senior tradition of rainy outings, this year's senior class enjoyed a sunny and wintry day at Mt. Airy Lodge. Plentiful snow offered many brave souls the opportunity to ski down icy slopes after a morning of practice on the skating rink. Swimming, horseback riding, tennis and snowmobiles contributed to the success of the day. A late afternoon power failure in the cabins resulted in interesting color combinations and innovative hairdos at dinner. The day ended with dancing to the sound of Krystal Wharf.

Mary Jo Kusakavitch enters the single ski competition.

Grazed by the feeling of power, Lenny Fried tries to break the sound barrier.

Sue Stella stops on the ski-bob hill for a brief rest.

high standards

Mr. Frank Majikes
Assistant Principal

As principal, Father Burns has often stressed the fact that everyone at Bishop Hoban is part of a single family. For eleven years he has guided the school with that belief. His loyalty to the school and its students and faculty is shown in everything he does, every decision he makes.

Sister Catherine completed her second year at Hoban, handling the many details related to academic affairs. In addition to scheduling, taking care of substitutions and processing report cards, Sister Catherine also managed to cheer teams on and lend a helping hand at extracurricular events.

Mr. Frank Majikes, long accustomed to the new challenges which face him daily, eased through another year maintaining the standards which make Bishop Hoban a school where real learning takes place. His task is monumental, but he manages to listen with an open mind and solve all problems.

Sister Catherine Kemper, S.C.C.

Bishop Hoban's administrative leaders—Mr. Frank Majikes, Sister Catherine, and Father Burns, work closely to see that Bishop Hoban High School continues its reputation as an exceptional education facility for area youngsters.

N.H.S. inducts 38 outstanding students

On December 10, 1981, the Mother Seton Chapter of the National Honor Society held its seventh annual induction ceremony. Seniors and juniors who exemplify the qualities of character, scholarship, service and leadership were also honored by the presence of their relatives and friends. Guest speaker Father Paul Farber, C.S.C., of King's College delivered an inspiring speech and commended the inductees for their academic achievements.

Part of the ceremony included the lighting of candles which signify the various qualities of NHS members. Officers for the year included: Michael Mulderig, president; Mary Liz Austin, vice president; Ann Konopelski, secretary; Colleen McGlynn, parliamentarian. Sister Leonita, R.S.M., served as advisor to the society and arranged the annual program.

Christianity in action

Bishop Hoban's Christian Life Community is a group of young men and women who are dedicated to using faith in action. Sister Joan Daniel, S.C.C., serves as moderator to the group. Students gather together regularly in the school Chapel and conduct prayer services intended to help them better recognize their love of God and responsibilities to the community. One of the main events is the CLC sponsored prolife march to Washington. The Hoban group also met with CLC'ers from all over the state during the celebration of World CLC days.

Many eager reporters joined the staff as experienced writers assumed editorial positions. The staff worked hard to meet hurried deadlines. The result was a top quality newspaper which was happily received by all at Hoban.

Council supervises numerous activities

Judge-elect Chester Muroski stresses the importance of good leadership and citizen involvement in government.

On November 5, 1981, fifty members of the Bishop Hoban student body accepted their duties as members of the student council. The ceremony was presided over by Principal Father Gerald J. Burns. He was assisted in distributing the council badges by Sister Catherine Kemper, vice principal. Guest Speaker, Judge Chester Muroski discussed leadership and its effects.

Council members began immediately to work on a number of school related and community related projects. Among other things, the council oversaw the annual blood drive, the distribution of Thanksgiving baskets, the semi-formal dance and aided the parents and faculty throughout the year.

Lively musical draws praise

The quiet town of River City, Iowa was disrupted by the antics of traveling salesman Harold Hill, and audiences reveled in the story that unfolded. The Music Man became Hoban's ninth successful musical in as many years. Under the direction of Sister Leonita, RSM, Richard Lloyd and Claire Koval charmed the audience with their portrayals of Harold Hill and Marian Paroo. A strong supporting cast of talented actors and actresses added to the lively play. The music was flawless as the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Edward Richards and the chorus directed by Miss Ann Manganiello added the finishing touches to the popular production. A number of perfectly executed dance routines were choreographed by Mrs. Marge Koval.

Weeks of preparation yield best results

November 21, 1981, marked the first public performance of Hoban's ninth musical, The Music Man. Months of planning and hard work preceded the opening night. Brother James Miller, C.S.C., of the King's College Theater department designed and built the scenery with the aid of Hoban students. Mr. James Stook and Mr. Kevin Davenport handled the scenery and technical direction. Behind the scenes, many students were involved with preparing costumes, applying makeup, ushering, compiling ads for the program and working at a variety of other tasks which helped to make the play such a success.

Hoban Homecoming spans the decades

The 1981 Argent Homecoming brought with it some spectacular sights. Students dressed in the style of their favorite rock stars and fashions from the 60's to the 80's. All the classes showed tremendous spirit; however, it was the seniors and sophomores who excelled in enthusiasm. The sophomore class received the special award for best decorations and the seniors captured the spirit stick at the pep rally.

The highlight of the Homecoming events took place during the halftime of the Hoban-Wyoming Area game. Kurt Schmidt and Denise Durkin were named King and Queen for the 1981 Homecoming.

As usual the event generated great spirit throughout the school. A large crowd witnessed the Argents valiant battle against the Wyoming Area Warriors.

Hoban donations surpass all schools

Bishop Hoban students proved once again that they are "number one." During the 1980-81 school year the Argents donated $5,106.80 to the missions. This was the highest school offering ever made in the diocese. This year competition continued as homerooms and classes competed to be "number one" in contributing.

The school received a plaque from Auxiliary Bishop Timlin and a personal thank you from Father Callahan who offered a special Mission Mass at the school.

Sister Joan Daniel and her mission representatives worked hard to keep the competition high and the spirit of generosity alive.

"Wonderful Tonight" — Memories linger

After weeks of preparation by Sister Joan of Arc and the Semi-formal committee the annual Bishop Hoban fall dance got under way. An exceptionally large crowd turned out for the dinner dance. Pittston's Convention Hall rocked to the music of "The Great Rock Scare." A buffet was served offering the students a wide variety of foods. The theme of the evening was "Wonderful Tonight" and those who attended seemed to agree whole heartedly.

Busy year for language clubs

Many Hoban students became involved in the cultural aspects of the languages they studied. Members of the Latin and French Clubs were represented at the King's College Language Festival by preparing skits and various displays. The Latin Club members also planned a special Latin Mass during Advent. Both clubs prepared songs and readings and joined the German and Spanish Clubs in a Liturgy prepared for the January Parents Club meeting. Assorted refreshments awaited the juniors and their parents following the ceremony

October 7, 1981 marked a milestone in the high school lives of a special group of people. The day was Ring Day and the people — the Class of 1983. Although the day was one of great excitement, it was also a time for the juniors to realize their loyalty to the Bishop Hoban family.

The special liturgy was presided over by school principal, Father Gerald J. Burns. Much preparation by Sister Leonita, RSM, the junior class officers and the music department went into making the day so memorable. Parents and friends attended to add to the meaning of this very special day for the juniors.

Staff finishes immense task

The school day ended at 2:50 for most students. However, hidden quietly away on the ground floor, a small group of juniors and seniors worked each day until 4 o'clock (and later) to put together the 11th annual record of Bishop Hoban High School. Seniors mapped out the book, cropped pictures, drew layouts, wrote copy and socialized while juniors dabbled in captions, headlines and drawing up finished layouts. Senior Colleen McGlynn served as editor of the 1982 Arc and was assisted by Kelly Chadwick and Bernadette Rudolph. Yearbook advisor Mr. Martin J. Kane supervised the production of the annual.

Tankmen affirm phenomenal record; Capture 9th League, District crown

The "on going epic" continued as the dynamic Argent swim team captured its 131st consecutive league meet with a 96-32 victory over Wyoming Area. This victory also gave the boys their 9th straight crown in the Wyoming Valley Conference. This outstanding feat was followed by an equally astounding accomplishment at King's College on February 19 as the swimmers easily outscored all competition and walked away with District Title number nine. The Argents scored a total of 273 points leaving second place Abington Heights 45 points behind.

Veteran Coach James Higgins and assistant William Milz watched as seven Hoban swimmers qualified for the Pennsylvania state competition. Team captain Marty Havira won the 50 yard freestyle and joined with team members John Finn, Ray Ostrowski, and Mark Dombroski to capture second in the 200 medley relay. Juniors John Blaum and John Finn both broke district records in capturing their events. Blaum finished first in the 500 freestyle and Finn in the 100 backstroke. Rich Lucas qualified with a second in the 200 IM and Dan Westawski's time in the breaststroke earned him a spot in state competition.

The truly "epic" success of Coach James Higgins' swimmers seems as endless as the spirit, dedication and endurance of the boys who comprise the team.

Proving the depth of the Argent team freshman Sean McGali out distances his opponents in the butterfly.

The strong spirit shown by John Blaum and Rich Lucas as they encourage their fellow swimmers exemplifies the outstanding enthusiasm of the entire team.

Girls capture second spot in League, district

The title for the girls championship swim team in Wyoming Valley was decided by a swim-off between long-time powerhouse Bishop Hoban and rival Valley West. When all the points were tallied the Argents fell by a slim 93-79 defeat. The Hoban team reached this thrilling meet after finishing a 19-1 season, losing only to Valley West at Plymouth.

Coach Susan Cavanaugh returned to Bishop Hoban to lead the girls through the exciting season and watch as they outscored Valley West by 25 points to gain second place in the District meet. The girls team gained only ten fewer points than District champ Abington Heights.

The remarkable record was a reflection of the dedication of the girls and their coach. Team captains Alisa Woicicki and Tracey Summerfield were joined by Amy Summerfield and Virginia Panaway in capturing the gold medal for the 200 Medley Relay in District competition. Following this event, Alisa Woicicki and Tracey Summerfield each earned two additional gold medals. Woicicki captured the 50 and 100 freestyle and Summerfield won the 200 individual medley and the 100 backstroke. These exceptional victories resulted in four girls attending the State competition.

Early in the season Jim Ostrowski took first place at the Bishop Hafey Tourney and finished the year with a 17-7 win record. His counterpart Bernie Kusakavitch placed second in the Hafey Tourney and compiled a season log of 18 wins and 6 losses. Also making great contributions to the 8-11 varsity team record were Tim Kohl (15-9) and freshman Pat O'Connell (17-8). Coach Bill Jones watched with satisfaction as his team's hours of grueling practice and dedication paid off. Seniors Gary Mrozinski and John Sullivan served as team captains.

Argents stun Mohawks, trample Comets

The Argents finished their second consecutive season with a 2-9 record. As in the past, the team showed a willingness to compete strongly. One of the brightest moments of the season came when the Argents stunned their city rival Meyers. The superb defensive effort by the Argents and a 12 yard pass from Mike Slavoski to Mike Olsakowski gave the Hoban team a 6-0 victory. The small, but noisy crowd of Hoban fans sat glued to their seats as the final seconds ticked off the clock. It was the first time in Hoban's history that the Argents defeated Meyers.

Coach Nick Ametrano's second victory came in the last game of the season. More records were set in this game as the Hoban squad scored more points than any other football team in Hoban's ten years of varsity football. When the dust cleared, the Argents had a 46-21 victory over the Comets of Crestwood. During the game the Argents exploded for seven touchdowns, six of them on Slavoski passes.

Local papers named Junior Jim Ostrowski and Seniors Mike Slavoski and Mike Olsakowski to All Star Teams.

The girls optimistically approached the District 2 Cross Country Meet on Thursday, October 29. Chris Ann Finnegan, Marybeth Murphy and Ann Konopelski finished in the top ten, but were squeezed out of the title by Valley West. Chris Ann Finnegan qualified for the State Finals.

Not to be outdone, the boys' team finished the season with an impressive 12-4 record. Leading the action were seniors Greg Quinn, Owen Murphy and Gene Burke. Junior Paul McHenry and Sophomore Lee Marconi also contributed greatly to the winning record. The boys' fourth place finish in the league pleased Coach Kevin Davenport. With a continued flow of young talented runners the prospects for next year's teams appear favorable.

Argents struggle through season

Following a short jump shot Ed Morgan gets fouled and a chance for a three point play.

Despite a disappointing season, the varsity team rallied to complete their league play by capturing three wins in a row. Nanticoke, Coughlin, and Valley West fell victim to the second half surge by the Argents.

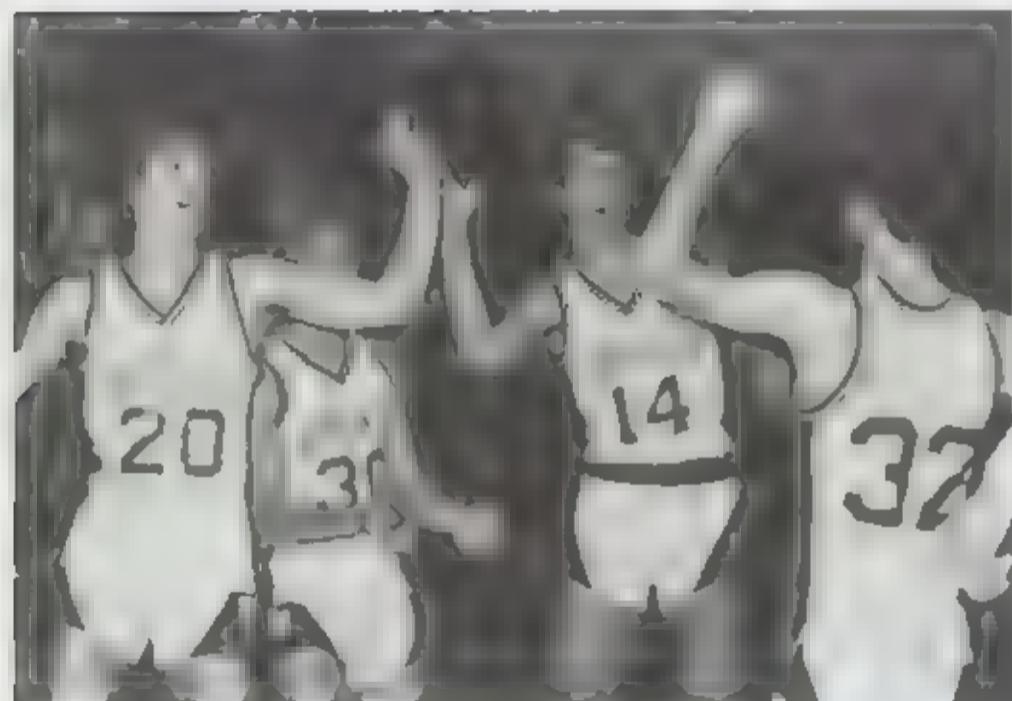

The cagers were led by co-captains Mike Slavoski and Ed Morgan, both of whom averaged double figures for the season. Juniors Gary Bukeavich and Shawn Thornton and sophomore John Paul Andrejko adding scoring punch.

The season opened with losses to Bishop O'Reilly and Pittston. The Argents then defeated Wyoming Area and Mike Slavoski reached a 32 point career-high total. The win was followed by six losses before the team pulled together for their three final victories.

Coach Chet Hine's cagers had some fine games and were rarely defeated without a struggle. Strong performances were turned in by the starting five and Bob Durako, George Platko and John Wilkas who came off the bench to help.

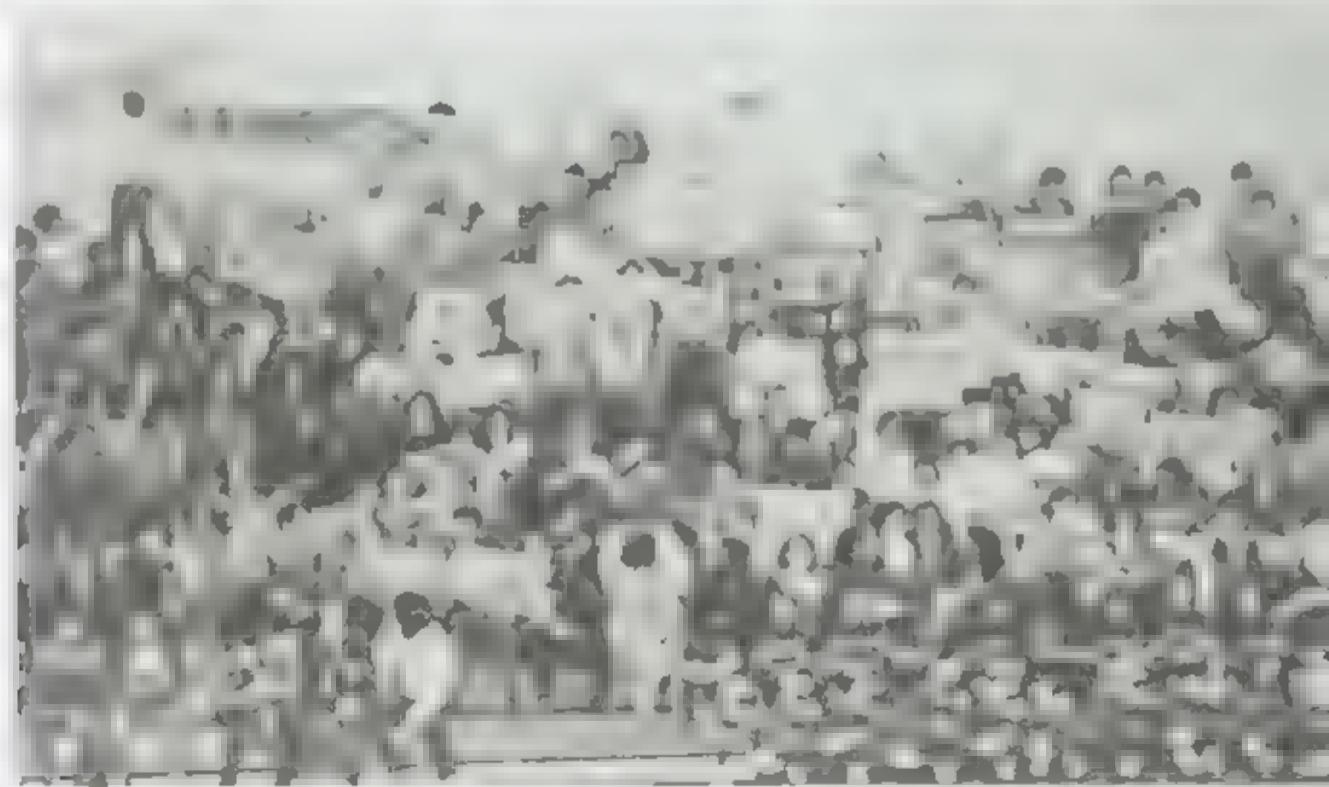

Under pressure Shawn Thornton looks to fellow junior John Wilkas for help.

Girls enter playoffs with 8-4 record

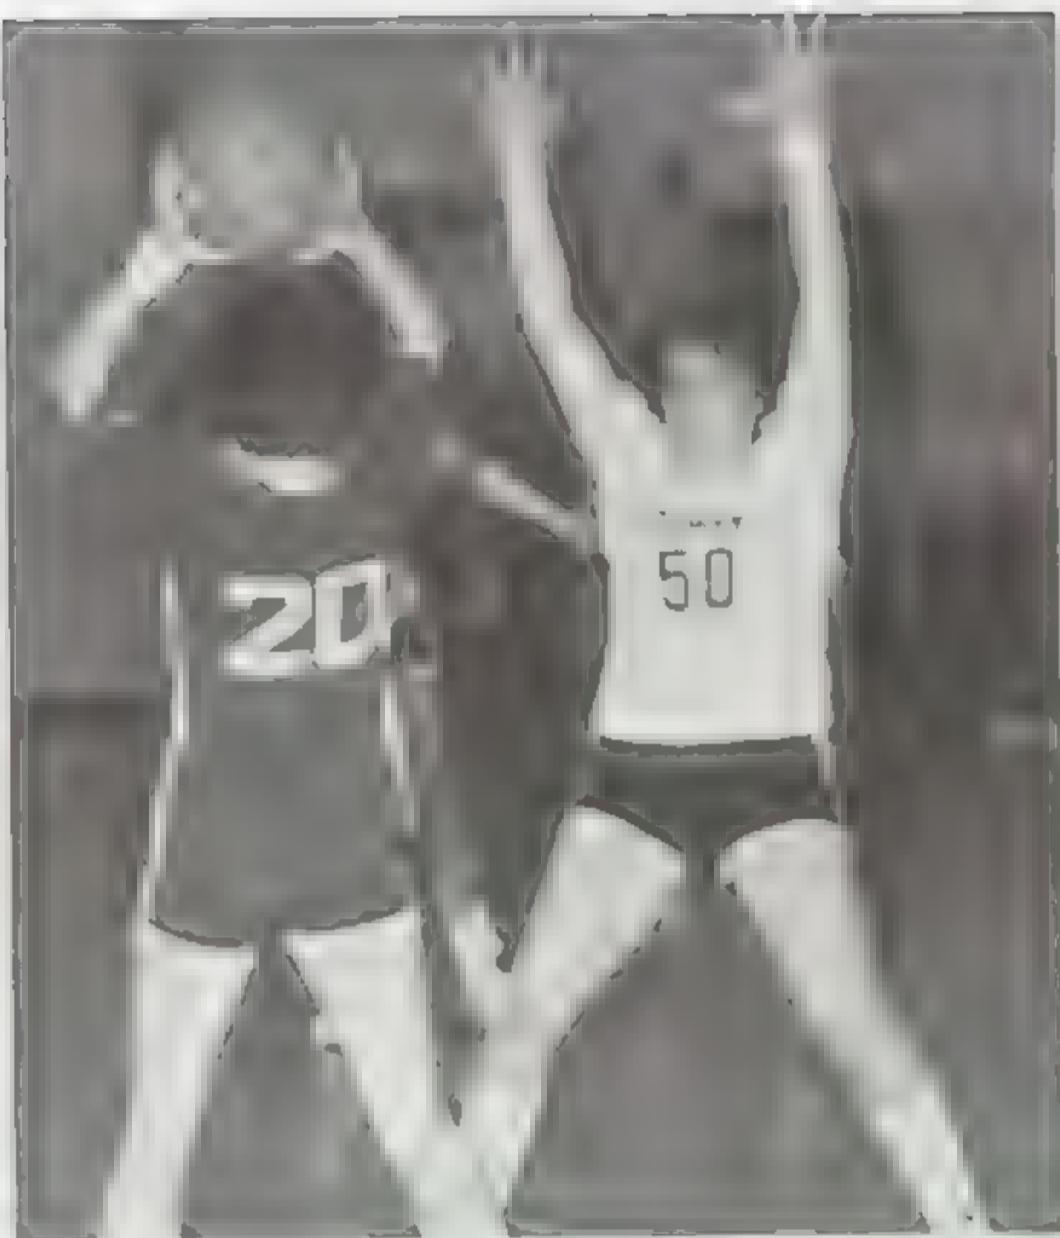

Top scoring Linda Zajaczkowski goes in for an easy two point layup.

An experienced girls' basketball team enjoyed a winning season. Leading scorer for the team was Laura Nork who averaged 15 points per game. Not far behind in scoring was junior Alison Kryger. Contributing to the success of Coach Ann Marie Carlin's girls were seniors Theresa Ziemba and Linda Zajaczkowski and junior Juliette Banas.

The lady cagers ended the year with an overall 15-8 log. The girls lost to league champion Nanticoke twice, but managed to defeat every other team at least once. The team's league record assured them a spot in the playoffs.

Following the end of the quarter Coach Carlin and team members give the starting five a rousing applause Playing tough defense, Laura Nork stops the opposition's drive to the basket.

Before being fouled Alison Kriger gets the ball off

Team manager Lorraine Henry brings the much needed refreshment for the girls.

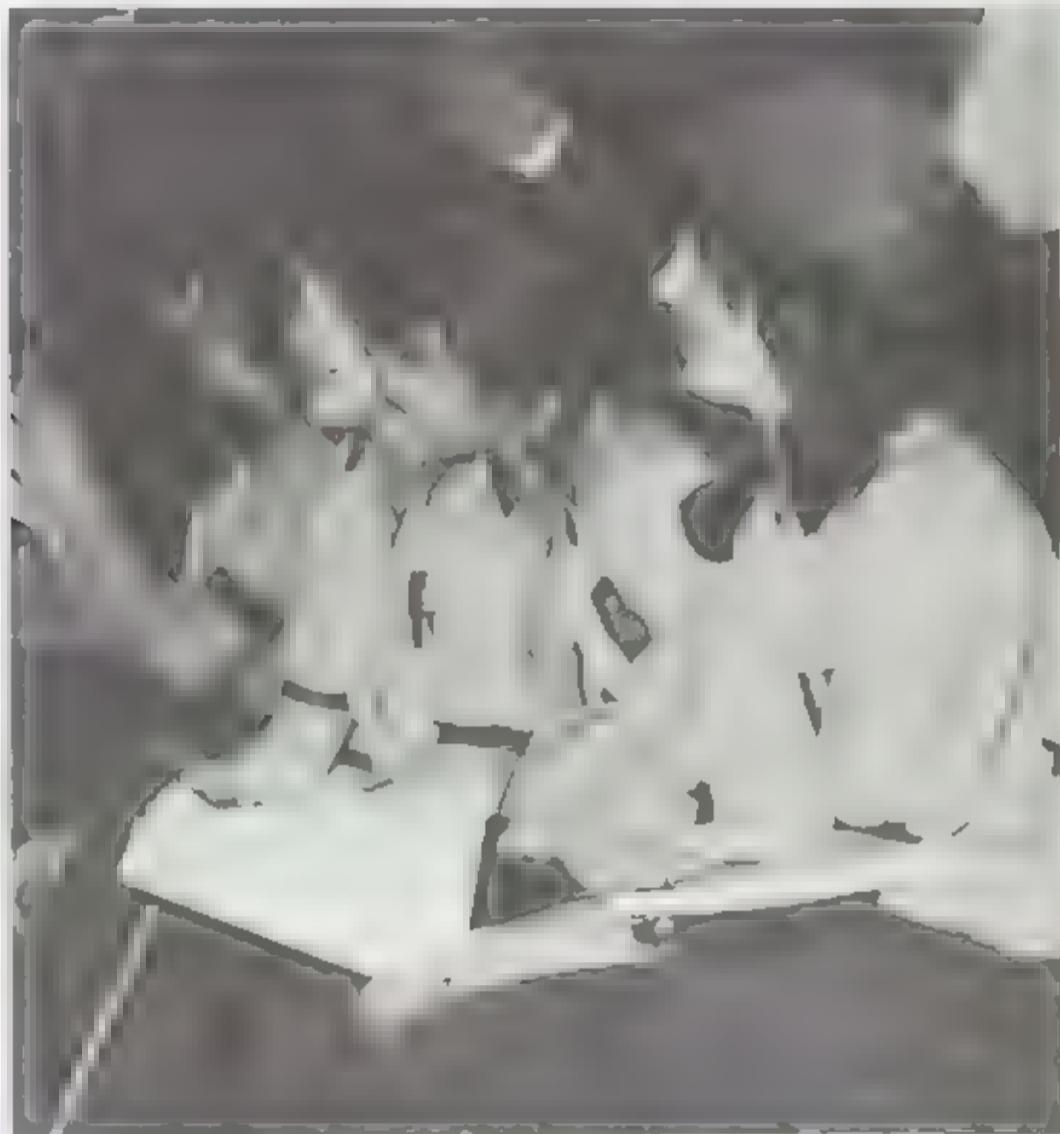

As the Patriettes close in, Juliette Banas prepares to go up for the shot.

A mid-court collision sends Juliette Banas and Lynda Zajackowski to a sudden stop.

Playing before sparse crowds during the late afternoon hours as daylight faded into night the junior varsity girls compiled one of the best team records at the school this year. When their season closed, the record stood at twenty wins and one loss. Coach Ann Marie Carlin's JV team was led by juniors Tricia Austin and Kelly Cook and sophomores Colleen McGraw, Claire Falkowski, Mollie Mangan and Lori Scupska. Team work and a strong spirit brought the lady cagers to its very successful season.

On the bench, players keep their own statistics of the action on court.

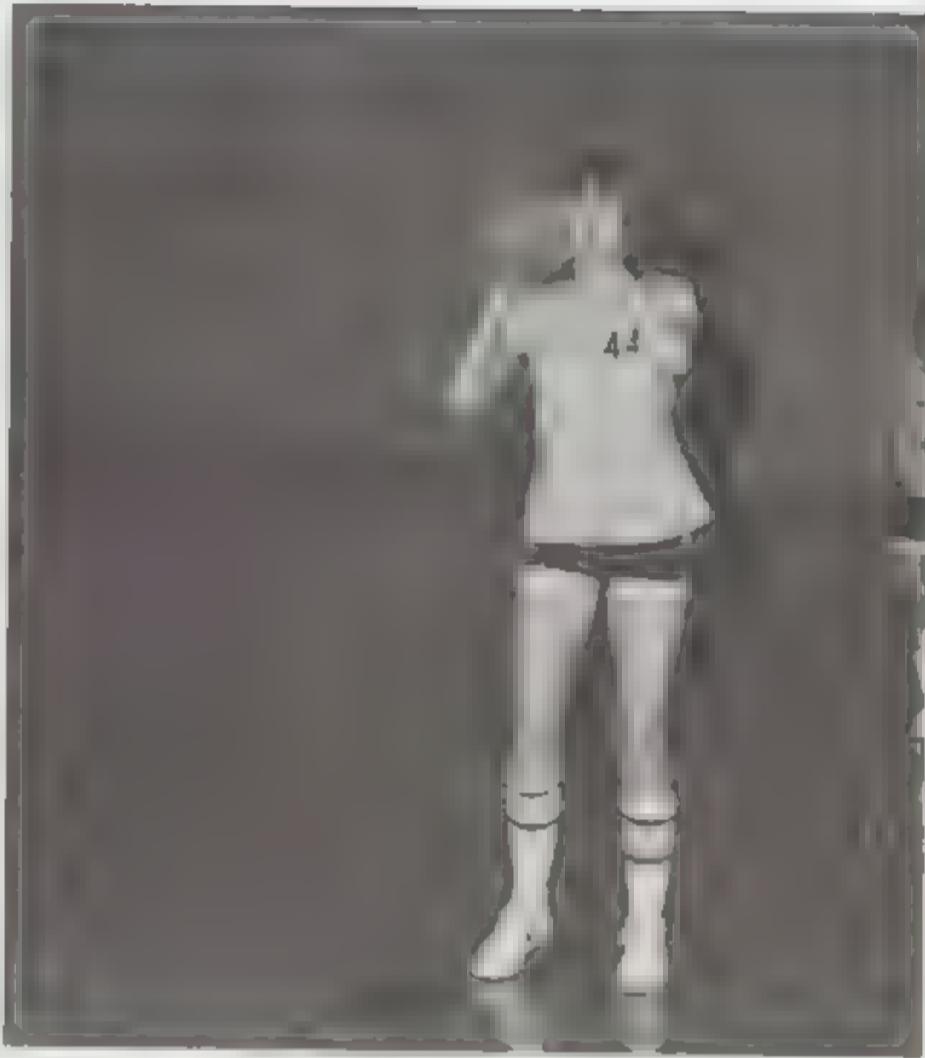

Hard work yields 20-1 record for JV's

Junior varsity team: Coach Ann Marie Carlin, Colleen McGraw, Heather Mangan, Claire Falkowski, Mollie Mangan, Lori Scupska, Maryann Mrozoski, Becky Barney, Amy Punko

Lori Scupski looks on as teammate Tricia Austin attempts to add two more to the score.

A confident Mollie Mangan goes to the free throw line

Despite the pressure, Colleen McGraw easily maintains control of the ball.

Slipping past the defense, Maryann Mrozek drives inside for the shot

MEMORIAM

We know that when the earthly tent in which we dwell is destroyed we have a dwelling provided for us by God, a dwelling in the heavens, not made by hands but to last forever. (2 Corinthians, 5)

DONNA MARIE BLAUM

I'll love what you gave me all of my days,
And treasure the memories of you I've saved.
I know your soul is soaring in happiness and peace.
You touched the hearts of all of us
And your song will never sleep.
Love and joy came from you with a warm and special feeling;
People looked at you and knew your smile was real.
You opened up a window deep inside and let your Loving spirit flow within our minds.
I'll love what you gave me all of my days,
And treasure the memories of you I've saved.
I know your heart is sailing so joyfully above;
I sing this song in memory of your lifetime and your love.
